Activity & Camp Costs - Social and Community Access & Participation

Goal		The Social and Community Activity Costs cost of some NDIS participants can be claimed against their NDIS Funding Package.
Description		Social and Community Activity Costs will be charged to a NDIS package where the activity directly relates to the participant's goals and if the person is at risk of social isolation or where it can be demonstrated that a participant cannot afford the expense related to the activity and the consequence of not paying would result in them not attending leading to increased social isolation. This can also be charged when the person is trying new recreational pursuits; and engaging in broader community participation. This should be specified in the person's plan wherever possible. Hours in a Community Access budget will be converted to a fee and claimed by St Mary's House of Welcome for the activity costs as listed below.
